

Clay Walker, Loving You Comes Naturally To Me

When the moon pulls the tide
The ocean don ask why
It just follows
No one has to tell the trees
It time to grow new leaves
Down in the hollow
And le heard it said
It all part of the Good Lord master plan
And now I understand Why
Chorus:
Every time you walk in the room
I find myself reaching for you
I don even have to try ause just like the way
This heart of mine beats
Loving you comes naturally to me
Like singin?is to the birds
Never at a loss for words
When I near you
And every time I hold you tight
I get the feeling deep inside
I was born to
Girl, there ain no doubt
It the easiest thing le ever done
And I know youe the one ause
(Chorus)
