

Clear Vision, Calm This Storm

Pull into the light
See right through that hole inside
You're so close to me
But I know, I'll never be
With you all alone
We will never calm this storm

Waiting for you
In this empty room
Waiting for you
Afraid to be alone
Waiting for you
Listen in the night
Waiting for you
To fill that hole inside

Need time to pretend
And I want you home again
You're so close to me
I fall down on my knees
"Do you regret me?
