

Cleavage, Riddled

('Cause I'm changing my life around again)

She waits for me
by the rocks where the water breaks
'Cause in the drug I've been too bad not so far as to put an end to me

'Cause at the bottom of the sea lie all the lost souls
It's where they all sleep, it's where they go

Chorus:
Still are you laughing at me?
This fire burns your misery (..ry, ry ry)
Still are you laughing at me?
No, no!!

How long did you wait
Or did you feed the fire and detonate?
Two steps forward, one back
Listen real close even if it hurts you're waiting for me in the clouds... you're invited

'Cause at the bottom of the sea all the lost souls
It's where they all sleep it's where they all go
I swear this time (this time)... I'll change forever

Chorus

'Cause I'm changing my life around again
And I ain't wastin' my time without you
'Cause I'm changing my life around again
'Cause I ain't wasting my time without you

Sometimes this life can just SUCK, SUCK, SUCK, SUCK!

Chorus

'Cause I'm changing my life around... again
