

Cliff Richard, Once In A While

I think of this - most every night
How hard it is to get it alright
I'm lookin' here and I'm lookin' there
I see heart broken pieces everywhere

Wouldn't you try wouldn't you know
Try so hard still you let it all go
Too much trouble too much pain
I think I'm gonna have that luck again

What'll I do if you walk away
What'll I do if you walk away
Well I haven't a chance
No I haven't a chance

Once in a while I get this feelin'
Now and again I'm all in a daze
Time after time I ask myself this

Will you walk away?
Once in a while I get this feelin'

Seems all day and night time too
I don't belong I'm just passin' through
I guess you're right I think too much
Still in all - I miss your touch

A crazy notion a careless thought
I start to worry and time gets short
Well think of this my dear young one
The time to act has just begun

What'll I do if you walk away
What'll I do if you walk away
Well I haven't a chance
No I haven't a chance
