

Cliff Richard, Say You Don't Mind

I feel I'm taking up all of your time
And I still can't work it out, wheter or not you mind
Say you still need my love and I will be strong
Just say that you're o.k. and I'll carry on
Say you don't mind

Well I need to show my love of that I am sure
Just let me feel you close, closer than before
I'm feeling better now, now that you're near

Just let me say the things, the things you want to hear
Say you don't mind

'cos I'm waking up - been shaken up
And I'm thrilled that I know you
I need to love - can't give enough
And all because you do - everything right to me can't you see
Say you don't mind
