

Cliff Richard, She's All Mine

She's got the moves of a wicked woman
She's got the light of an angel in her eyes
But she's all mine.

I used to think love was over rated
Got me a girl then I make her wait in line
Yeh, but not this time.

One little touch and I'm head over heels
One little kiss and she's makin' me feel alive
It's like I'll never die.

Oh, she's all mine
She's got me out, out of my mind
Oh, who knows why
Must be in love.

She's got the class of a jaguar
She's got the power to light up a fire inside
Of my cold, cold heart.

Yeah, one little touch and I'm head over heels, baby
One little kiss and I'm feelin' so good, so good inside

She's takin' me so high.

Oh, she's all mine
She's got me out, out of my mind
Oh, who knows why
Must be in love,
Must be in Love.

When she walks into the room
There's nothin' anybody else can do
And I know she belongs to me
When she holds me tight and
She looks so deep into my eyes,
She's all mine.

She's all mine,
She's got me out, out of my mind.
Oh, who knows why
Must be in love
