

Clinic, Memories

Memories are the pieces of a puzzle you wanted(?)
Memories are your pieces of gold

Memories are your wealth and your warmth, you wonder(?)
Memories are your pieces of gold
Down all the lanes that you treasure and travel, down all the lanes that you own(?)

Glowing in your eyes down the decades forever
Glowing in your eyes yet again
Memories full of joy and the laughter they bring ya
Memories that ought to have been (happen?)
Ah-ah-ah Ah-a-a-all you know

Memories for a lifetime
Memories are all your own
Memories for a lifetime
Memories are all your own
Memories are all your own
