

Clique Girlz, Ordinary Girl

Meeting you is like picking up a firework
You burn bright but you're only gonna get hurt (OW!)
You fly by so fast I get whiplash
You look cool but you're heading for a big crash
Still outta turn
You're a million of a million
I'm only speaking
Cuz you're asking my opinion
Oh o whoa whoa
What do I know
You're looking at an ordinary girl
Watching you go
Out of my ordinary world
You know what you are
You are the star
And everyone else is in your show
And I am an ordinary girl
So what do I know
Meeting you is like the opposite of crazy
We like chilling, kicking back and getting lazy
You're outta control like a spaced-out spaceship
And here on planet earth down I'll make your head tip
Still outta turn
You're a million of a million
I'm only speaking
Cuz our asking my opinion
Oh o whoa whoa
What do I know
You're looking at an ordinary girl
Watching you go
Out of my ordinary world
You know what you are
You are the star
And everyone else is in your show
And I am an ordinary girl
So what do I know
I'm giving up I'm not getting through
I'm like invisible next to you
You need to get where your going soon
I'm only speaking
Cuz our asking my opinion
I'd say I love you if you'd listen
What do I know
Youre looking at an ordinary girl
Watching you go
Out of my ordinary world
You know what you are
You are the star
And everyone else is in your show
So what do I know
