

Clique Girlz, You Think

[Destinee]

Na-nananah Na Na nananah Nananah nananah
Made a big mistake
Ever thinking that you cared
When it's so obvious
There's nothing here you would need to share
I ain't gonna cry
Cuz you can't hurt me anymore
You can run your mouth, you can speak your mind
Everything you say is a waste of time

[Chorus]

You think you're so incredible
Completely unforgettable
You think the world spins just for you
You don't have a clue
You act like I'm invisible
Without you I'll be miserable
One thing is undeniably true
You think it's all about you

[Ariel]

I can see it now
I can read you like a book
All you care about is
What you say how it makes you look
You can talk all night
Words can't hurt me anymore
You got a million answers to impress yourself
But it really don't matter to know one else

[Chorus]

You think you're so incredible
Completely unforgettable
You think the world spins just for you
You don't have a clue
You act like I'm invisible
Without you I'll be miserable
One thing is undeniably true
You think it's all about you

[Paris]

I don't wanna better role
You are that bigger loss to me yeah
Anytime your not here
Baby the air is clearer to breathe

[Chorus]

You think you're so incredible
Completely unforgettable
You think the world spins just for you
You don't have a clue
You act like I'm invisible
Without you I'll be miserable
One thing is undeniably true
You think it's all about you yeah eh yeah,
You think it's all about you, yeah yeah yeah
You don't have a clue
You act like I'm invisible
Without you I'll be miserable
One thing is undeniably true
You think it's all about you
Na-nananah Na Na nananah Nananah nananah nananah
