

Clit 45, We'll Have Our Say

You said we've got the right to speak
Said we got the right to think
But every time we try to fight
You push us apart, won't let us unite

[Chorus]

You can try to shut us down and push us away
But it doesn't fucking matter cause we'll have our fucking say
They can try to keep us silent, they don't want to let us play
But it doesn't fucking matter cause we'll have
our fucking say

You and your world don't know shit about us
You're building a scene without any trust
Greed and deception you never tell the truth 20 fucked up years of lying to our youth

The end has come to your tyranny
So don't be blind now you must see
That the time has come and the time is here
To take back our scene and give it to those who care
