

Clockwise, Shame

Let me bleed you through the stage,
I saw those pain but
You still hide your hate,
I'm not the only one, cares of your ass,
There are too many of them
Die by die,
I feel like emergency last,
In my mind thoughts are taking back,
Out from the nightmare of this world,
You say its ok, "I eat some, make sleep",
But were from comes my shame,
Cause this is my shame,
Such a shame,
My shame is your fucking fame...
You've got your plan
I'm part of this way,
Golden middle without any face,
Cause You need my words , my love,
To realize what You want...
