

Clor, Outlines

Eyes are meeting with mine across a room
And they send out special signals
There can be no mistake what they mean
I know, the better you look the more you see
You'd better look before you leap

Eyes like yours always looking for outlines
Eyes like mine always looking for yours
Eyes like yours always looking for outlines
Eyes like mine always looking for yours

One way or another gonna get into your outline
Im gonna get in from the outside
Ynever know it might just feel right

Eyes like yours always looking for outlines
Eyes like mine always looking for yours
Eyes like yours always looking for outlines
Eyes like mine always looking for yours

Each of us is special in our own unique way
Each of us is special
Each of us is special in our own unique way
Each of us is special

Outlines - gasping for contact
Eager to meet your tender urgent needs
Lets try to learn about one another
Really get to the heart of the matter
Make our moves with animal accuracy.

Each of us is special in our own unique way
Each of us is special
Each of us is special in our own unique way
Each of us is special
Each of us is special in our own unique way
Each of us is special
