

Closet Monster, Heart Strings

Today, I'm facing so far away, from you,
It seems like yesterday,
We'd left and carried on our own way,
Just me and you.

Yesterday, went through all the things to say, to you,
Complication comes our way,
Tongue tied, the same string that ties my heart from me to you.

I couldn't help to feel somethings not the same,
'Cause certain times I know,
Like everybody knows,
Things aren't the way they used to be.

It seems like nothing good comes for me,
Then came you the girl of my dreams,
So far, yet you still remain with me,
My thoughts on you.

I couldn't help to feel somethings not the same,
'Cause certain times I know,
Like everybody knows,
Things aren't the way they used to be.

I couldn't help to feel somethings not the same,
'Cause certain times I know,
Like everybody knows,
Things aren't the way they used to be.
Anymore.
