

Clouds, Blood And Bone

Sticks and stones
Break my body
Rattle my bones
Flood and fire
Put together, well they
Create desire
But above all is love

Blood and bone
Sleep in soil I guess
I will call it home
When I'm gone
Something stronger
Will live on and on

Inside me now
It fills my soul
I feel as though
I've got the power of a god

But above all is love
To guide my hand
To hold you near
To let you know I've got the power of a god
Inside me now
I feel as though
I've got the power of a god
