

Clouds, Dive

One wish fulfilled is all I'm asking
It's not self-willed
To want just one thing
Something within
Throws a clear light
Spread through your skin
Keeps your face white
You're the greatest thing I've ever seen
Waves at the door
Makes it home safe now
Soon there'll be more
We'll have to break out
Is this what happened where you've been?
Did you jump, did you dive?
Did you plumb the depths and come up alive?
You've got a secret I guess
You're older than you look
Older than the rest
Two paths we take
Which is the right one?
Is it a mistake
To choose the bright one
Or should we choose the dark below?
Shaped strong as steel
Bind me tightly
Than our last wheel
They're chains I can't see
I'll follow wherever you go
As you jump, as you dive
As you plumb the depths and come up alive
You've got a secret I guess
You're older than you look
Older than the rest
One wish fulfilled
Is all i'm asking
It's not self-willed
To want just one thing
Show me to move the way you move
With seamless grace
With blue emotion
With strength to brace
The surging ocean
It's not impossible, we'll prove
We can jump, we can dive
We can plumb the depths and come up alive
You've got a secret I guess
