

Clouds, Ghost Of Love Returned

Jamie came back
From the other side
To be with me

Heard me crying
Felt me dying
Life was death for me

When you're without love
The sun don't shine

Jamie's home now
But we may as well
Be in the ground
Everloving, everlaughing
No-one else is around

When you're without love
The sun don't shine
And the world
Leaves you behind
