

Clouds, Kathy

Thanks a lot for caring
For talking to me
Taking time out
Taking me to a corner
Getting me to let it all out

I have told you everything
That I'm feeling
You understand my pain
See it's all inside me
There's nothing wrong
I'm just insane

Kathy I'm frightened I am
And the Go-Betweens
Documented everything in a song
Every hour that went wrong

Every moment of ecstasy
Every fantasy
I had it bottled up inside
Guess you'd say I tried
I lied

You advised me long ago
To listen closely to my inner soul
Sometimes I understand
But now he's gone
Don't know where I am

Kathy I'm frightened I am
And the Go-Betweens
Documented everything in a song
Every hour that went wrong

You advised me long ago
To listen closely to my inner soul
I must have listened to my shoe instead
Or maybe to my head
My stupid head
