

Cochise, Part of me

Don't try to hurt yourself when I'm gone tonight And don't try to call my name when I leave your eyes Don't try to follow me standing on the edge
And don't try to lay again on my river bed Don't

Don't try to hide yourself, try to see the light And don't try to lose your way when the sun goes down

You ? you?ll never be a part of me
And I ? I?ll never be a part of you
?Cause we gently turn off the light

It?s a part of love
It?s a part of love

You ? you?ll never be a part of me
And I ? I?ll never be a part of you
?Cause we gently
turn off the light

Lights, they're shining like silver and gold Lights, in your eyes, like silver and gold Come, come, drink your suffering from the circle of my love
I need your love
