

Coheed And Cambria, Running Free

All my believers satisfied with me
A new day's marching through the war
Out of the web of fate you brought me here
Was it me that which the horror
Through the sorrows, you'd ignore me

Cause you're out of innocence
Reminded of the consequence
so what what does it matter?

Cause you're going home
You're running free
I don't need you to see
That I'd never hold onto anything
You're going home
You found a way out
I don't need you to see
I'd never hold on

Wuh-A-Oh-Uh-Wuh-A-Oh!
You'll all die well before you know
Wuh-A-Oh-Uh-Wuh-A-Oh!
And even if...

You will make amens before the engineer
What was the motive in this fight?
Out of the web of fate you brought me here
Was it me; that which the horror
Through the sorrows, you'd ignore me

Cause you're out from innocence
Reminded of the consequence
But what does it matter Now ?

Cause you're going home
You're running free
I don't need you to see
That I'd never hold onto anything at all
You're going home
A thousand ways out/You've found a way out
I don't need you to see
I'd never hold on

Wuh-A-Oh-Uh-Wuh-A-Oh!
You'll all die well before you know
Wuh-A-Oh-Uh-Wuh-A-Oh!
And even if

These are telling, whole, and honest
Tales are held in, whole...
Tales are telling, whole, and honest
Tales are held in, whole...

Cause you're going home
You're running free
I don't need you to see
That I'd never hold onto anything at all
You're going home
A thousand ways out/You've found a way out
I don't need you to see
I'd never hold on