

Coheed And Cambria, The Liars Club

Liars

It's the fear that wakes us up
The truth that things are such

A mess

Far beyond repair

Your mind out of service

Hard to find the words worth saying

What we do to deserve this

Everything seems broken when you look at it that way

Oh, it's a disease

And there ain't no cure

Oh, the truth is such a bore

Or do you want me to lie

'Cause I can do it baby

I can do it

Lie to you

Please ask me to

'Cause life feels so much better

When we just avoid the truth

Baby are you okay

To lie with me

Deep in disgrace with empty retreats

Farther than it seems to be

The older i creep

The pain in my body

Longing for the days of my teens

Well I guess I'll accept this garbage

Death behind the wheel

With my mama steering

Jealousy here in the backseat

Or do you want me to lie

'Cause i can do it baby

Lie to you

I'm begging you

'Cause life feels so much better

When we just avoid the truth

Baby are you okay

To lie with me

Oh don't let it hurt you babe

Baby are you okay

Oh, are you okay with it

Baby are you okay, okay with it

Cause i could do it baby

Or do you want me to lie

Cause i could do it baby i could do it

Lie to you

Please ask me to

'Cause life feels so much better

When we just avoid the truth

Baby are you okay to lie with me

'Cause i could do it baby i could do it

Lie to you

I'm begging you

'Cause life feels so much better

When we just avoid the truth

Baby are you okay to lie with me
