Coheed And Cambria, The Willing Well IV: The F

In the final curtain call You left me here with the coldest of feelings Weight, kind, depression Blessing the floor with the places you've stepped in

Will they ever measure up To the way you left me? Here by the roadside The bloodiest cadaver Marked in your words: I'm the joke, I'm the bastard

Here wait, so I guess that you knew That you're a selfish little whore I'm the selfish little whore If I had my way I'd crush your face in the door

This is no beginning, yeah yeah This is the final cut, open up This is no beginning, yeah yeah This is the final cut, I'm in love
