

Coko, I Get Joy

[Verse 1:]

There are memories
Beautiful exciting memories, of how you brought me out of certain circumstance-es right now its crazy, I remember being here before I thought I trusted you like intrusting in you now

[Chorus:]

So I get joy
When I think about, what you've done for me
I get joy from that
I get joy from that
I get joy when I think about
How you set me free
I get joy from that
I get joy from that.

[Verse 2:]

I sit and reminisce on how you changed my life
All the praise to you
For al the things you do
Good to me can't forget all the things that you've done
But the better things are to come
I lift hands if you give me half a second I might dance
I might dance
Give me half a second I might dance
Lifting up my hands I might dance
Give me half a second

[Chorus x2]

if you give me half a second I might dance
I might dance
Give me half a second I might dance
Lifting up my hands I might dance
Give me half a second oh

[Chorus x2]

ahh ahah ah ah ah aah
Anything you want me to Lord I'll do
Good to me can't forget all the things that you've done
But the better things are to come
Anything you want me to do
