

Colbie Caillat, Blue

Eyes blue
Just like the rain
Blue like the ocean
Blue like a cloudless sky on a sunny day
Our love
Was burning that blue flame
Blue like the ocean
Blue like the color of my heartbreak

I wish you still loved me right
The hours and the days go by
And my tears fall
Blue
Baby, after all this mess
I wish that I could love you less
Oh but I, I, I still fall
For you
Blue

I'd been
Turning a blind eye
Painting all of those red flags green
Pretending I didn't know exactly what they mean
Our time
Was short but sweet
Nights you would hold me while I'd sleep
We'd be staring in love madly

I wish you still loved me right
The hours and the days go by
And my tears fall
Blue
And baby, after all this mess
I wish that I could love you less
Oh but I, I, I still fall
For you
Blue
Blue

Do you think of me at all?
One look at me, would you still fall?
'Cause I still fall
Still fall
Oh, I still fall
I still fall
I wish your love still felt right
But it's fading out with the light
And my tears fall
Blue
I wonder who you're gonna love next
And when I'm gonna love you less
Oh, but I, still fall
For you
I still fall
I still fall
I still fall
I still fall
I still fall
Blue

I still fall
I still fall
I still fall
My tears fall

I still fall
Still fall
For you
Blue
