

Colbie Caillat, Goldmine

If all I had was a dollar and your bright smile
I'd have a dollar more than I would need to get by Cause I'm a billionaire if you count every sunrise
Waking by your side, and every good night
If all you had was the way that I love you You'd have more honey than the honey bees in June
I'll keep you laughing, keep you smiling, keep your dreams true
Long as I have you, nothing we can't do

Fly me back to the Moon where you took me
The very first time me you kissed me
In the sweet starling of your endless eyes when you lit this fire
Feels like we are sitting on the top of a goldmine
Flame so bright that it won't die
In a billions years it will still be here
Coz our love is a goldmine
our love is a goldmine

If everything we ever owned disappeared today
We'd build a castle in the sand somewhere far away
Don't need no money, no TV, don't need no microwave
Just the ocean waves, and the love we make

Fly me back to the Moon where you took me
The very first time me you kissed me
In the sweet starling of your endless eyes when you lit this fire
Feels like we are sitting on the top of a goldmine
Flame so bright that it won't die
In a billions years it will still be here
Coz our love is a goldmine
our love is a goldmine

We will be rich in wrinkles
Old and grey
The the rising sweeps us away
Until than

Fly me back to the Moon where you took me
The very first time me you kissed me
In the sweet starling of your endless eyes when you lit this fire
Feels like we are sitting on the top of a goldmine
Flame so bright that it won't die
In a billions years it will still be here
Coz our love is a goldmine
our love is a goldmine
