

Colbie Caillat, Sometimes You Need A Change

Last night, I said goodbye to you
Made you sad, and it hurt me too
Woo-oh-oh, sometimes you need a change

You said that you would still love me
I said there's still so much to see
Woo-oh-oh, sometimes you need a change

Wild horses will carry me away
But I know I've gotta leave, if I'm coming back someday
I know I'm gonna cry, but it's what I gotta do
It's the rolling stone in me, not the solid rock in you
Woo-oh-oh, sometimes you need a change

There'll be days you'll be mad at me
And nights I'll miss you so desperately
Woo-oh-oh, sometimes you need a change

Wild horses will carry me away
But I know I've gotta leave, if I'm coming back someday
I know I'm gonna cry, but it's what I gotta do
It's the gypsy heart in me, not the steady beat in you
Woo-oh-oh, sometimes you need a change

There's still someone I need to be
I can't know us until I know me
Woo-oh-oh, sometimes you need a change
