

Coldplay, Five Feet

it uses cloth
as a lid
for the thorns
that surrounds him
treats the glimmery wet thing as his breathe
they let him fly
land on foam
rage,rage
thats what he create
a long flowing river
who devours floating stuffs it became the center of attraction amuses them without noticing the prairie demands of him everybody who smells
is his bridge
leaves led him to search the night animal presents
its mountainous moves
