

Cole Jude, Worlds Apart

Save me from the dark of night
I'm drifting like a satellite
Miles from understanding
Where this love will lead
Heaven let your light fall down on me
Now I'm over-thinking
Love can't be this hard
We seem to be spinning worlds apart
Sometimes truth is hard to touch
We give too little, expect too much
Promises forever hiding in our eyes
Worlds of chances passing by
Now I'm over-thinking
Love can't be this hard
We seem to be drifting worlds apart
You could wait forever
Lord I can't do that
Spend a lifetime looking back
(Solo)
Now I'm over-thinking
Love can't be this hard
We seem to be spinning worlds apart
You could wait forever
Lord I can't do that
Spend a lifetime looking back
(Now I'm over-thinking)
Ooh, yeah yeah yeah
(Love can't be this hard)
Yeah yeah yeah...
(We seem to be spinning worlds apart)
