Cole Jude, Worlds Apart

Save me from the dark of night I'm drifting like a satellite Miles from understanding Where this love will lead Heaven let your light fall down on me Now I'm over-thinking Love can't be this hard We seem to be spinning worlds apart Sometimes truth is hard to touch We give too little, expect too much Promises forever hiding in our eyes Worlds of chances passing by Now I'm over-thinking Love can't be this hard We seem to be drifting worlds apart You could wait forever Lord I can't do that Spend a lifetime looking back (Solo) Now I'm over-thinking Love can't be this hard We seem to be spinning worlds apart You could wait forever Lord I can't do that Spend a lifetime looking back (Now I'm over-thinking) Ooh, yeah yeah yeah (Love can't be this hard) Yeah yeah yeah... (We seem to be spinning worlds apart)
