

Colin James, It Ain't Over

It seems the clock is always stuck at ten to two Cause thats the time that you walked out and I lost you
I've decided I would stay and wait it out
Hoping I could still be all you cared about
It ain't over yet
It ain't over

You never gave me half a chance to prove my self
It did me in when you took up with someone else
But I can tell you I am made of stronger stuff
And i'll convince you if I hold on long enough
It ain't over yet
It ain't over yet

I know you packed your bags and left
And it's as bad as it can get
You know that It ain't over yet
It ain't over yet
It ain't over yet

I'm gonna be right here where you left me
Just come on over and get me???
It ain't over yet

I know you packed your bags and left
And it's as bad as it can get
It ain't over yet

Some say that when i lost you i lost my mind
I am seeing clearer all the time
It ain't over yet
It ain't over yet
I know you packed your bags and left
And it's as bad as it can get
And no it ain't over yet

You packed your bags and left
It ain't over yet
na no no it ain't over yet
