

Collective Soul, Adored

I can say this life is
Much better today
Everything turns right if
Wrong gets in the way
Yeah I've got the feeling
It's something I find hard to explain
See I wasn't looking
But girl I'm glad I fell in your way
Then she says oh boy, oh boy
Count your lucky stars
Count what you've been wishing for
Oh boy, oh boy
Count the life you lead
Count how you are now adored
I can say the sun
Burns much brighter today
I can see my path though
Clouds darken my way
Yeah I've got this feeling
It's something I find hard to explain
See I wasn't looking
But girl I'm glad I fell in your way
[chorus]
She said she was tired of
Watching me just wilt and bleed
She said I'm like Jesus
I save those who do believe
Do you, do you believe?
[chorus]
