

Collide, Beneath The Skin

On the edge i look in touch the flesh touch the skin cup my hands time stood still intoxicate fire at will pulsating through my veins beneath the skin skin and bone beneath the skin i am alone smoldering release, expire confined within i walk the wire on the ledge no return saturate melt and burn rising from the flames beneath the skin skin and bone
