

Comecon, Ways Of Wisdom (Serve Two)

Send them flowers masticate us meat contenders Undevelop
contemplate a life as fur for superpowers abjuration in December Were you tempted by a life of contemplation

I'll raise you - erase you

Look at you now so far from why and how

Quiet attire oven plant shareholders prosper Sound investments syncretism in mag-lite by the twilight barrier bargain price as false as Gospel We're all tempted by the life of contemptation

They'll raid you - invade you

What have you done now can you tell who's the one?
