We point the fingers at each other

We got their sisters and their mothers (who?) - cryin'

Because their fathers and their brothers (damn) - are dyin'

Turn on at eleven o'clock news

And tell me whatchu see, which raids catch the blues

That one nigga's dyin' every ten seconds

So if you don't wanna be part of the group

Don't think the trigger happy motherfucker won't shoot now (boo-yaa!)

Innocent victims get caught up

Very first drive-by throw up

The way niggas was broad up

To do onto others and they do to you

But nobody give a fuck so everybody best to duck, c'mon
