

Conditions, A Night In Shining Amore

This one's flawless
Ain't she a beauty? Ain't she grand?
Sealed with a kiss, with hopes of getting through Because a glass ceiling divides us, and what I've got
Is the blessing of a clear day, and a clear view
The architecture looms above
Come dance within the framework of young love
Fill it baby, fill it
Two figures in a skeleton lit, dancing so electric
And lighting up this world
And I'll step right on your heart
Pressing hard and deep, I'll leave you not degraded
Cause I'll keep coming back to fill that fragile imprint
Again and again, until you're satiated
So we live only to die
Well lately I've sworn that's so untrue
Because part of me swears that
I am living for you
