

Connie Smith, Back In My Baby's Arms Again

Honey bees are gonna be hummin' guitar strings are gonna be strummin'
When I'm back in my baby's arms again
Happy wheels are gonna be turnin' flames of love are gonna be burnin'
When I'm back in my baby's arms again
No more tears are gonna be fallin' I done hurt my true love a callin'
Open arms are waitin' yonder round the bend
Rivers of honey are gonna be flowin' big sweet flowers are gonna be growin'
When I'm back in my baby's arms again
[guitar - steel]
The voice of love is gonna be talkin' hand in hand we're gonna be walkin'
When I'm back in my baby's arms again
The big old swings are gonna be swingin' water springs are gonna be springin'
When I'm back in my baby's arms again
No more tears are gonna be fallin'...
Yeah when I'm back in my baby's arms again when I'm back in my baby's arms again
