

Connie Smith, You're Gettin' Heavy On My Mind

You're gettin' heavy on my mind you've made me warmer than the sunshine
I think about you all the time you're gettin' heavy on my mind

Not long ago it seemed impossible for me to fall in love again
But lately it's been hard for me to think of you as just a friend
You're gettin' heavy on my mind...

[organ - fiddle]

Well only thing that love has given me is loneliness and sleepless nights
But something has been telling me to give my heart another try
You're gettin' heavy on my mind...
You're gettin' heavy on my mind...
