

CONNOLLY, Midnight Summer night (Irlandia - p

Dark night black sky, curtains open close my eyes
Its time to start dreaming, about a different life
Its cold out cover up, spring is here just my luck
Everything is blending, hold up somethings up
How long have i been asleep, time is racing as we speak
I don't know whats real or not, headache now and stomach knots
Trapped in this world of thought, lost the key that fits the lock
This is my reality, someone out there save me
Midnight summer night, I don't know if I could
Midnight summer night, I don't know if I could
Midnight summer night, I don't know if I could
Midnight summer night, I don't know if I could
Make sense of it now, please tell me how
I don't know if I could
Make sense of it now, please tell me how
I don't know if i could
Hold on little girl, your dream is fading
Don't let go of this world
'Cause time is racing
Midnight summer night, I don't know if I could
Midnight summer night, I don't know if I could
Midnight summer night, I don't know if I could
Midnight summer night, I don't know if I could
Make sense of it now, please tell me how
I don't know if I could
Make sense of it now, please tell me how
I don't know if i could
Ahhh, ahhhh, ahhhh
Ahhh, ahhhh, ahhhh
Ahhh, ahhhh, ahhhh
Ahhh, ahhhh, ahhhh
Hold on little girl, your dream is fading
Don't let go of this world
'Cause time is racing
