

Connor Price, Swordfish (feat. Nic D)

One hunnid

Yeah, that's it, moonwalkin' like Jackson, on top like a fraction
You hear a nip and I feel different, I'm big dog like a Mastiff
Every line is a cash-in, make a hit off of ad-libs
Said it all would happen and it happened, look

If I was a fish, then I would probably be a swordfish
I just keep on winnin', boy, I'm swimmin' wit' endorphins
I don't need a door, I locked that thing right off the door hinge
Property so big the Uber driver need coordinates
Series of events that led to this was not unfortunate
Only 5'7", but my money's not proportionate
Y'all ain't stoppin' my plans, got too much on my hands (Calluses)
Spices all in my jam, never droppin' it bland (Balanced if)
Cheers endin' my wins, cut filled to the brim (Chalices)
Just me and my friends, never lettin' y'all in (Savages)

That's it, moonwalkin' like Jackson, on top like a fraction
You hear a nip and I feel different, I'm big dog like a Mastiff
Every line is a cash-in, make a hit off of ad-libs
Said it all would happen and it happened, look

(Ah) Yeah, when I try to clear the air here, it get blurrier (Ah)
Pressure on me to deliver big, so I carry it out like a courier (Ah)
She told me to slow down, don't burn out, she a worrier (Ah)
Told her "Don't worry 'bout it," I stay solid and I'm sturdier
(Yeah) Sturdier (Yeah), sturdier (Yeah), sturdier
Yeah, back in it like I never left (Oh), headbangin' like a metalhead (Yeah)
Ain't nobody above sea, talkin' musically, it's a treble clef
My spot marked like the letter X, that's how you know that they treasure this
They treasure this? They treasure that, they dish it out and I send it back
I pop out and it's in the flesh, they don't 'member that? Men in black
I tiptoe through a cold winter but still never get cold feet
Skate on it and make go figure, this thin ice can't hold me
(Hold me, hold me, hold me, hold—)

Yeah, that's it, moonwalkin' like Jackson, on top like a fraction
You hear a nip and I feel different, I'm big dog like a Mastiff
Every line is a cash-in, make a hit off of ad-libs
Said it all would happen and it happened
