

Conor McLaughlin, Not Ready For Me

Try to be clean and brave
Try to walk away
But miles around me the wonder grew

Maybe, Maybe
You're just not ready
Maybe you should just let us be

Life doesn't wait for us to live it
Love doesn't wait for us to give it
So why won't you just give in
And believe in another
People make it so much harder to just let go

Maybe, Maybe
You're just not ready
Maybe you should just let us be

Hey you soothe me, girl
But, you're just not ready

Now it's quiet you turn cold
You can't even look at my face
My love

My love, you try to erase

Maybe, Maybe
You're just not ready
Maybe you should just let us be

Hey you soothe me, girl
But, you're just not ready

I can see the strength you give to me

Maybe, Maybe
You're just not ready
Maybe you should just let us be

Hey you soothe me, girl
But, you're just not ready girl

So I got to let you go
Or I'll never know
If you're coming back for the real thing

Maybe you're not ready for me
