

Conscious, Desperate Housewives

{Conscious}

desperate housewives

wit steak knives

can take lives

life

escaped with mine

ran by dem naked mines

on the field

on the reels

they taped my life

how can i be wrong for layin pipe, if i layed it right slick plumber that never showed crack man i never sold crack

just contra band to fans in the form of new millenium wax...

even still i build watching grams

removing weight

music distributed through a basement gate..

then hit the the pavement...

independent indies jump the slaveship, left the salt mines in strawberry fields blue blood spills for real there is no oxygen, or pills there is no boxin in this doc oc phil

mermaids splash

iare pop dem gill

some shock and aw campaign

we chop trill

for proper spill

the operas filled

canaries singing

we don't believe you

we know you ain't slinging
