

Consumed, Nicky Fry

I saw Nicky Fry today.
He told me everything you wanted to say.
About you and all the things you wanted to do.
Why don't you say it to my face?
We've seen you hanging around our end - guilty,
you'll never be our friend.
this is a message out to you.
Why don't I say it to your face?
Say it to my face (10x)
