There's a watermark
The tears are all dried
And leaving a stain
On an empty heart
Where nothing is right
Ain't nothing like rain.

Oh and when it falls down on me
Oh and when it falls down on me.

There's a man I know
He's keeping his face
Turned into the light
I can see the glow
Shine into the dark
Shine into the night.

Oh and when it shines down on me
Oh and when it shines down on me
Oh, I believe.

There's a watermark (there's a watermark)
The tears are all dried
And leaving a stain
On an empty heart (on an empty heart)
Where nothing is right
Ain't nothing like rain.

Oh and when it falls down on me
Oh and when it falls down on me
Oh, I believe.

Oh and when it falls down on me
Oh and when it falls down on me
Oh, I believe.
