

Converge, Bare My Teeth

in cold blood
i claim this day
i charge blind
into the fray
in the name
of all my pain
i bare my teeth
to make him pay
i sink on down
and greet her end
with the worms
and the dead
with serpent strength
and true hate
i bare my teeth
to make her pay
maw mends
i take flight
for one last time
with raven wings
and two black eyes
don't be afraid
with demon speed
the gift of hate
i bare my teeth
to make them pay
don't be afraid
nowhere to hide
