

Converge, Minnesota

Dear, just one day,
Just another fight,
Just one more lonely night,
Just one more crowd under the burning lights.

(With some blood and mind to be paid)

To my friends to my family,
I tried to be the best man I could ever be,
I tasted their failure on the entrance way.

(With some blood and mind to be paid)

To my greatest of demons,
I beat you,
I beat you.
