

Converge, Two Day Romance

Can you help me?
Take a picture before I paint over her,
She is beautiful,
She was everything.

I miss her.

Last night I dreamt of her tracing my scars.
She said she'd never leave and that I'd always stay.
That night you called I stood by that phone for hours,
I felt everything thirty miles away.

You said you loved me and I told you the same,
We kissed there for the first time,
I believed in you for the last time,
I once was I, once was whole.

Peacemaker,
Tell myself that this is time to say goodbye.
Goodbye.
