

Courtney Love, Fly

Look at me, I'm alive,
I wanna jump but I don't know why!
Don't wanna live, don't wanna die,
Just wanna see if I can fly

I'm desperate, I'm glorious
I'm going down with up interest
Hold onto me, hold on tight
And let's just see who gets out alive

Stupid, cos no-one cares,
There's not a net, there's no-one there

Can you fly-y-y, you'll never reach me
I'm too high-igh-igh, it's my own myth I'll,
Deci-i-ide, to finish what I started and
I-i-i-i, I know the meaning of life!

Look at me, I'm gonna jump!
There's not a net, I'm so far up
I'm glorious and I defy
Gravity to even try

It's through the fight, it's time and I
Wanna go for the speed of light
Stupid, cos no-one cares,
There's not a net and there's no-one there

Repeat chorus

Come in here from the light,
I have to leave you behind,
I know the meaning of life

It's dark, but love is so light
It's dark, but love is so light

Repeat chorus

I'm just a flash, light of the sky
Now look at me I'm still a fight
I hit the ground, and then sit
Around six of the glorious
