

Crack Rock Steady Seven, Heroin Or Suicide?

Hey see you know what I, I know what I don't You promise you promise and I know you won't
The problems and pressures we face everyday
Are sometimes more like but always on display
It breaks in your ears it aches in your bones and brings you to tears
With various incisions you load another bullet
Your shootin' with precision

I'm talented with atrophy yea i do it well you know I'd like to take a break from suffering in hell Squattin' is the excuse is I frequently abuse
Either way I hold the chain im gonna need a noose cause PAIN!!!!!!!
Sweats on my skin, sick with bad memories and burns for my sin PAIN!!!!!!!
To talk with each breath
The only solution is the sweet taste of death!

Don't mistake the demeanor
My kindness and weakness
I'll burn you with reality
While you cry to your Jesus
You're suffocating in two
You're choking in an empty room
You're empty life that's ending soon
Completely spells your doom

I made a choice deep inside heroin or suicide?
sickness praised in times of need we waste away from hands of greed Jesus nailed to wooded T's cannot compete with my disease humanity the weak condition my soul is sick from my decision

PAIN!!!! The badness increases
The goodness wants to cry while we are cut to pieces
PAIN!!! Precious death
Paralyzed with apathy that's all that's fucking left!
PAIN!!!!!!
