

Crack Up, Sonic

everything that i got is everything that you want
is everything that you fked (up) the little that you see is nothing to believe high - high - higher ground turn - turn - turn around you wouldn't get it if you'd tried no chance to get it if you'd cried simply forget it and go home just keep on resting good ole bone don't you believe it's time to leave there's nothing left you could receive maybe you'd get it if you'd tried maybe you'd get it if you'd cried
