

Craig David, Hidden agenda

Come on baby, doo doo doo doo ohh yeah, come on now baby he keeps on saying that he tells you youre the only one but everybody knows hes out there having fun behind your back & thats a fact & it aint right cos hes a fly guy acting like a gentleman but back in the day I can still remember when hed just turn around , wouldnt look twice at you and Im just being straight with you cos he takes you for a fool so you should be on your guard when he thinks you dont have a clue and I think if the truth be known that youll end up all alone when he gets every thing he wants so girl open up your eyes & see with me What you see is what you get aint no hidden agenda
so girlfriend when hes playing around you do well to remember
now lady when he tells you that he loves you & wont give you up takes your car & its your money that be filling it up look at what hes got, thinkhes hit the jackpot & it aint right `cos your connections keep him sweet & thats so typical hes only in it for himself & thatso cynical Hed be out of sight girl if you lost it all, so I feel so bad inside when hes cruising in your ride cos I know baby late at night theres some other girl by his side and I wanna let you know that he really ought to go and you should believe in me cos I care baby cant you see with me what you see is what you get
Now baby girl when does you wrong Ill make sure youre alright yeah I just wanna be your friend cos theres no reason to pretend and thats the difference with me oh girl
