

Craig David, Static

Intro

Uh uh uh c'mon

Watcha want from me

Watcha need from me

Want more money

You're causing static

Static

Verse 1

I always knew it right from the start

You were the type of girl who liked to front

Used to give you everything you want

Any given time

I could talk about the way you talk

That your acting so nonchalant

Though considering the things you've bought

Something just ain't right

Used to be hair and nails

Designer shoes with thinner heels

Now you mention bags, are you for real

This girls got expensive habits

The only air that you breathe

Is diamond rings you took from me

The more I see is the receipts

Something just don't add up

Chorus

Everywhere she goes she's an addict

When it comes to spending dough its automatic

Everything she wants she's gotta have it

And when you tell her no she causes static sta-static sta-static static

Verse 2

Now you're driving expensive cars

Rubbing shoulders with the hottest stars

While your maxing out my credit cards

Like your the one who's living large

Your an addict and its plain to see

That your living way beyond your means

You got the nerve to try and lean on me

Like I'm a walking ATM machine

I hook you up I take you out

Give you the keys to my house

Now you got my phone tryna crush me out

You gotta let her go she's just to selfish

She splashing out every month

Buying clothes just to wear them once

Now your sexing me like I'm a chump

Something just don't add up

No

Chorus

Everywhere she goes she's an addict

When it comes to spending dough its automatic

Everything she wants she's gotta have it

And when you tell her no she causes static sta-static sta-static static

Craig: Hello

Girl: Yeh babes it me, listen, I need some more cash

Craig: More money?!

Girl: Yeh well..

Craig: Wait a second, how does it work that I need to give you more money, you've already used the card yesterday, what you buying?

Girl: Well I couldn't get what I wanted yesterday

Craig: That doesn't mean

Girl: I just want some shoes

Craig: I don't care

Girl: Yeh but wh...

Craig: I can't keep giving you money like its, like its falling off of trees

Girl: But why

Craig: Oh man! I'll talk to you later

Bridge

My friends say I'm a fool and I'm crazy for loving you

Sick and tired of the antics you use

Guess it's time that I faced the truth

That you, that you girl, you're too damn material (who)

Chorus

Everywhere she goes she's an addict (this girl is out of control)

When it comes to spending dough its automatic (that's why I gotta let her go)

Everything she wants she's gotta have it (oh no oh no no)

And when you tell her no she causes static sta-static sta-static static

Everywhere she goes she's an addict (and I hope you're my girlfriend)

When it comes to spending dough its automatic (but you're too damn, damn demanding)

Everything she wants she's gotta have it (all you're good for is spending my dough)

And when you tell her no she causes static sta-static sta-static static (Eenie meenie minie mo thats)

Outro

Static sta-static sta-static static

She's an addict She's an addict (x8)
